Our Services

Our disability services are designed with you in mind, and we have dedicated Aboriginal workers who can speak to you about the service type you would like. They can also help you manage your services, give you ideas about getting out and about in your community, and suggest ways to increase your day-to-day skills so that you can become more independent.

If you have an NDIS plan and are looking for services to meet your own goals, or the goals of someone you care for, Kurranulla can assist. These services are for Aboriginal and non Aboriginal participants.

This brochure lists some of our NDIS services and our Aboriginal workers can help you if you have questions or would like to talk with one of our staff please call 02 9528 0287 or email manager@kurranulla.org.au and we will get things started.

Plan Management

Plan Management is the overall management of the plan and includes: Assisting the participant to select providers, develop service agreements, paying providers and developing monthly statements for participants and claiming payment from the NDIA (National Disability Insurance Agency). This support focuses on strengthening the participant's ability to undertake tasks with management of their supports. This includes: Building financial skills and organisational skills.

Plan Managers assist the participant to develop their skills for self-management in future plans, where this is possible.

Support Coordination – NDIS supports

These are the supports that agency (NDIA) have found to be 'reasonable and necessary' to help you live an ordinary life.

We can provide short term or ongoing support to strengthen your ability to coordinate your supports, manage your life independently, and participate in your community. We can assist you with connecting you with service providers suitable for your needs, coordinating your supports and managing your NDIS plan. As well as planning for changes around work, study, or other aspects of your life.

Community Participation

This support is included in a participants plan to enable a participant to pursue recreational activities to engage in broader community participation. As a core support it may be used for activities such as camps, vacation and outside school hours care, courses or membership fees. The intent of this support item is to provide funding to enable a participant to participate in community activities, particularly when the participants are at rick of being socially isolated.

Assistance with Personal Domestic Activities

Assist participants to undertake and/or develop skills to maintain their home environment where the participant is in their own home and has sole or substantial responsibility for it maintenance. This includes assisting participants to do basic house and yard work.

House and/or Yard Maintenance

Performing essential house and or yard activities that the participant is not able to undertake.

Group/Centre Activities

Provision of supports to enable a participant to engage in community/social or recreational activities in a group.

Assist-Travel/Transport

This may involve a worker accompanying a participant on a community outing and/or transporting a participant from their home to the community. This includes getting to and from shopping, doctor or medical appointments and outings.

Accommodation/Tenancy

Support is provided to guide, prompt or undertake actions to ensure the participant obtains/retains appropriate accommodation. This may include assisting to apply for a rental tenancy or to undertake tenancy obligations in line with the participant's tenancy agreement.
